✓ For further info visit: https://www.coracle.de/faq-ba

✓ Accepted by all German Embassies and Consulates.

Student Health Insurance

❖ If you're planning to study in Germany as an international student, you will need to arrange adequate health insurance coverage. Without it, you won't be able to enroll into university or receive a residence permit. Germany has a mixed health insurance system of both statutory and private health insurance providers.

Public Health Insurance

- For full time students younger than 30
- Offers Extensive Medical coverage
- Cashless doctor visits
- Existing medical conditions are always covered
- Regulated by German Government
- Spouse and children (German residents) can be covered without additional payment

Private Health Insurance

- Just 35 Euro per month
- For Language Students, Studienkolleg
- Powered and covered by ERGO, one of the top insurers in Germany
- Exclusively for Coracle Blocked Account customers
- No credit card needed. Payment starts only after arrival
- Can be used as Travel insurance document for your visa

✓ Get It Online Without Additional Costs!

✓ You can simply use the link below to apply for the Health Insurance. Link: https://www.coracle.de/health-student

✓ Student Health insurance is a long term policy that covers you for the duration of your studies and until you return home. You will need health insurance in order to enroll at the university.

✓ For further info visit: https://www.coracle.de/faq-hi

- ✓ Accepted by all German Universities, Educational Institutes, and Health centers.
- ✓ For the students who have foreign scholarships, family relatives or any other financial sponsors, can exclusively apply for the public health insurance from Coracle without having a blocked account.
- ✓ TK, Barmer and AOK are the most popular health insurance providers among the students arriving in Germany. However, contact us if you want to choose from other insurance providers.
- ✓ You can always switch to a different insurance provider as long as your insurance is not activated by the university for your enrolment.

Travel Insurance

❖ Travel health insurance for students: This is short-term insurance for the period from the day you leave your home country to the start of your semester in Germany. When you apply for a visa to study in Germany, you will be asked by the embassy for travel health insurance that meets Schengen requirements.

❖ FAQs- Ask, Understand & Relax

✓ Save up to 90 Euros! You get the Travel Insurance for free as a welcome bonus for becoming our Health Customer.

✓ Accepted by all German Embassies and Consulates. 100% Guarantee.

✓ Unlimited treatment cost (>30K Euros). Valid up to 180 days. No deductibles.

✓ You want to change the start date of your travel insurance? Sure. Anytime.
